

Year 6 Knowledge Organiser RE Spring Term 1

What I should already know?

- That people have different ideas and believe different things and that these are of equal value in British law.
- That beliefs with deities are called religions.
- That people who believe the same thing often organise themselves into groups with spiritual leaders.
- That religious groups have rituals and practices, which are specific and sometimes unique to their religion.
- That religious groups often have special buildings in which they meet to worship.
- That religious groups often have special sacred books which they use in their worship and that these sacred writings often form the basis of their beliefs.
- That religious beliefs are regarded as the truth by believers.
- That the main religion in Britain is Christianity but that there are also many religious groups in our society.
- That Christians follow the teachings of a man called Jesus whom they believe to be God Incarnate ( God born on Earth in human form).
- That Muslims face Mecca when they pray.
- That Muslims follow a prayer ritual called Wudu.
- That when Muslims are born the first thing they hear is the Shahada (First pillar of Islam) which is the declaration of faith.
