

15. How are parents involved in the school? How can I be involved?

Parents play a key role in Herne Junior School. We welcome parents in school, whether it is for reading support or if it's to help with a specific topic that a class may be covering. We try and utilise parent's personal skills in order to enhance the children's experiences.