Dear Parents & Carers,

Short and sweet this week! It's been relatively quiet!

Well done to everyone who has reported the potholes in Love Lane. We've had an indication that the powers that be are now aware of them. Fingers crossed that repair will be on the way when the weather is drier. On that note, please be careful with the Hoadlands/field entrance end...the huge amount of rain that has fallen has given us our own natural swimming pool! Please be reassured that our site team are looking at solutions.

And Finally...whatever you are up to this weekend, enjoy. I've got the urge to Spring clean!

Best Wishes,

Sue Sayers

Headteacher

P.S. We thought you might enjoy this picture of our Midnight Library, taken by Mrs Tandy. It really is a place you want to visit and read in! I've just finished another recommendation, "There are rivers in the sky," by Elif Shafak...absolutely loved it! Thank you! A Turkish writer who produces quirky novels - all the books are very different but there's history woven into the tale. This one is set in ancient Mesopotamia/modern day Iraq.

Author of the Week – M G Leonard

M.G. Leonard has written a whole host of books for you to get lost in. Her debut novel was the sensational 'Beetle Boy' (which is now a trilogy) before she teamed up with Sam Sedgman and begun the 'Adventures on Trains' series which involves Hal and friends solving a range of mysterious crimes! Her next series was that of The Twitchers: it is detective mystery meets bird watching. Leonard's most recent series is the 'Time Keys'. The protagonist Sim travels through different times in history to solve a new mystery, piecing together different long-hidden clues. With family secrets and villains just around the corner, this is an adventurous series that also teaches its readers a thing or two about history. As well as all of these fantastic chapter books, M. G. Leonard has also written some picture books like 'The Tale of a Toothbrush'. Which will you choose?

Year 5 Community Book Swap

Year 5 will be holding their annual community book swap later on in March. If you have any children's books you would like to donate, we would greatly appreciate it. In particular, if you have any children who have recently finished Junior school and would like to donate higher level chapter books that would be wonderful. Please leave donations at the office. Thank you.
