

Year 6 Homework, Summer Term Week 1

Maths: Super Six

- 1) What is the value of the digit 7 in the number 47,682?
- 2) $34 + 28$
- 3) 348×6
- 4) $973 \div 8$
- 5) $(45 - 18) \div 3 + 7$
- 6) $238 + 125 =$

- 1) A laptop costs £480. The price increases by 15%, then decreases by 10%. What is the final price?
- 2) $764 \times 28 =$
- 3) $9,456 \div 36 =$
- 4) The ratio of red to blue beads is 5 : 3. If there are 216 beads altogether, how many are blue?
- 5) A school orders 12 packs of pencils. Each pack contains 48 pencils. They give 135 pencils to Year 5 and 97 to Year 6. How many pencils remain?
- 6)

$$\frac{5}{6} - \frac{3}{8} + \frac{1}{12}$$

Reading Comprehension:
Complete The mystifying field of dreams.

Spellings

Support	Core	Extension
telephone		lacy
telegraph		scientific
telescope		inaccuracy
television		decide
telepathy		eighty
telephoto		revolution
telegram		pitiful
teletext		tension
transmit		offering
transact		inscription
transaction		autograph
transfer		kaleidoscope
transport		claustrophobia
transparent		credit
translate		biological
transform		contribute
garden		new
green		work
marvellous		government
excellent		environment

SPAG activity

Complete each sentence by using the subordinating conjunction provided to start a new adverbial clause.

Make sure that the adverbial clause you create contains a verb!

- a) Jacob has been my friend since _____.
- b) You can join the football team once _____.
- c) I like this restaurant even though _____.
- d) Unless _____, you will never win the competition.
- e) Even if _____, Miss O'Neill never lets us go to play early.
- f) Although _____, Sam still somehow managed to finish the race.
- g) Until _____, you don't really appreciate your friends.