A Note from our Headteacher

Dear Parents & Carers,

Short and Sweet this week. Our week started with our lovely people below being awarded the Values Award for Independence. Well done to all! This half term we move onto Honesty!

I hope you are well underway to getting your World Book Day costumes ready...I'll be raiding the dressing up box this weekend! See reminder below. As you will recall we do every other year dressing up - and this is the one! More information below.

And Finally...whatever you are up to this weekend, enjoy. I'm off to buy a big hat for my lovely Godson's wedding in May. Thankfully, Spring looks as though it's finally sprung, so perhaps a walk in the sunshine too this weekend?

Best wishes

Sue Sayers

Headteacher

PS Thank you to the parent who recommended, The Inheritance by Jenny Éclair – I loved it! An easier read but lots of intrigue and I didn't see the end coming!!

World Book Day

This year World Book Day is on Thursday 6th March. We are dressing up this year, so we would love for the children to come into school dressed as a book character. Please do not feel it is necessary to buy a new costume/outfit, usually the more creative the costume, the better! It is important that these costumes are appropriate and allow the children to take part in a normal school day. If they have a copy of the book of the character they have chosen to dress up, please bring this on the day too!

The Return of Friday Football Club

Our Friday Football Club will return on Friday 21st March. All children who registered for the club in the Autumn will automatically be re-registered, so if your child no longer wants to attend, please contact the office to get them removed from the register. Let's hope for a drier few weeks, to dry out the pitches.
